

A CELEBRATION OF RESILIENCE

The mission of FCR is to provide a welcoming, inclusive, and safe environment for all survivors of trauma, including those impacted by domestic and sexual violence, substance abuse, bereavement, and other causes. With the understanding that the aim of equality and justice is ongoing, we are committed to modeling diversity, inclusivity, and equity within our organization to reflect the communities in which we serve.

OUR MISSION

FCR services are offered consistent with our values of choice, acceptance, hope and dignity with the goal of helping children and adults along their path to safety, health, and well-being. We are committed to advancing policies and practices that promote diversity, inclusion, and retention of staff and services to clients of all racial, ethnic, gender identity, and socio-economic backgrounds and beliefs. Our goal is to ensure that a wide range of perspectives, experiences, skills, innovation, and decision-making abilities have a seat around the table and that all voices are heard. We know that the quest towards equity and social justice is long, and there may be challenges along the way, but we are dedicated to making that journey in the spirit of continuous learning, listening, and improvement.

OUR VALUES

To inspire healthier communities free from family and community violence. Through our work in support of vulnerable populations, one day all children and adults will be able to thrive in a safe, just, and equitable world.

MISSION MOMENT

One in 30 children experience homelessness each year; Massachusetts ranks 4th in the rate of homelessness in the US. Homeless children are more likely to experience hunger, be separated from caregivers, witness violence, struggle in school and experience a host of medical illnesses at a greater rate than housed children. Statistics issued by the FAmily Services Resource Bureau cite that up to 60% of women who are experiencing homelessness report Intimate Partner Violence as an immediate cause.

The vast majority of families experiencing homelessness exhibit three key features - they are headed by single mothers caring for young children, racial minorities are disproportionately represented, and a majority of these mothers have experienced severe trauma from interpersonal violence that increases their isolation and compromises their ability to function as the sole breadwinner for the family. The need for safe housing and the resources to maintain safe housing are two of the most pressing concerns among women who are planning to leave abusive situations or who have recently left abusive situations. Housing programs for survivors, such as the ones offered by FCR, provide income supports, access to education and job training, activities that address the needs of culturally diverse families, and services that target domestic violence, interpersonal trauma, clinical depression and children's developmental needs and behavioral health. As children are resilient, early interventions can help ameliorate or prevent future developmental and health concerns and break the cycle of poverty.

Helping families create safe rehousing plans combined with services to address educational, employment, and individual needs help families sustain that housing. Federal funds cannot provide all of the resources needed, however, and thats why we need your help!

THE COMMUNITY SPIRIT AWARD: THE PRONE FAMILY FOUNDATION

"GROWING COMMUNITY THROUGH EDUCATION SUPPORT"

For the last decade, the Prone Family Foundation through its Trustee and President, Mr. Stephen Prone, has been a staunch supporter of FCR's mission, providing both financial and in-kind support to those we serve. Steve, as he is known, has also served on FCR's Board of Directors for the last three years.

There are so many ways in which Steve and the Foundation embody the notion of Community Spirit. Their generosity extends to many other local community organizations including The Charity Guild, My Brother's Keeper, The House of Possibilities, and Cardinal Spellman High School, among others. When he sees a need, he finds a way to meet it. Says Steve, "The needs of the many outweigh the needs of the few." For those who know him, that is one of his Star Trek quotes, but it aptly applies to the work of the Foundation. Most recently, when the pandemic was wrecking havoc, he bid on and won a container truck of PPE supplies and promptly shared it with the many non-profits supported by the Foundation.

Steve likes nothing better than to be at Comic Con, or taking a trip with his family including wife Carol, son Christopher and his wife Kara and daughter Isabella, son Jonathan and his fiance, Gabbi and his Navy son Colin.

About FCR, he says, "FCR has long impressed me with their commitment of always helping people, even when you know they cannot help you back. Ronald Regan once said, "We can't help everyone but everyone can help someone." And lastly I want to thank everyone at FCR for allowing me to be part of this great work, and as I remember from long ago in college, "Be yourself, everyone else is already taken."

As part of his current work at the United Way, Mr. Carman serves on a number of boards and community coalitions.

FCR is thrilled to partner with The United Way of Greater Plymouth County which provides a funding support to two important initiatives at FCR, a Comprehensive Mental Health Initiatives and a Community Collaboration to Promote Health Equity & Well Being in partnership with the Charity Guild.

THE YOUTH VISIONARY LEADERSHIP AWARD

FETSHER TULIN

FCR HEALTHY RELATIONSHIPS PEER LEADER

Fetsher Tulin began his FCR career in the fall of 2020, in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic. His sensitivity, strength, intelligence, humor and and compassion is felt by everyone who interacts with him. Fetsher has been an integral part of the Healthy Relationships program, public speaking at multiple outreach events, starring in our Red Flags prevention video, creating social media content (you can see him on TikTok!) as well as even recruiting multiple new peer leaders.

Fetsher's leadership is seen most in his commitment to connection with others, he is always making sure that everyone gets to use their voice and be heard. Everyone jokes that Fetsher is the "Dad" of our peer leader group, not only because he leads the way when the lights in the hallway turn off and everyone is afraid of the dark, and offers to take the trash out after every group, but also because he takes the time to give thoughtful, understanding advice and come at every problem with empathy and logic. Fetsher truly is the definition of a peer leader, a role model and a leader - as much as he has learned from us, we have learned from him. Many will agree that their "favorite Fetsher moment" was his speech at the White Ribbon Day campaign, where he talked about hope, and creating bright futures for all.

Fetsher's talents don't stop at being a peer leader however, he also plays in senior jazz band, advanced concert band, wind ensemble, is a member of drama club and harmonics all at BHS. Somehow he also manages to find time to be a big brother, a friend, and a hard working student. We are all so thankful for Fetsher's intelligence, dedication, and endless empathy for all. We know that wherever he goes - he has greatness ahead of him!
